In the above-identified case we wanted to have a personal interview before the end of the fully extended period for responding to the final Office Action. Because it took too much time for you to retrieve the case from storage, we ended up filing an RCE to keep the case alive. You have now issued (5/26/4) the first Action after the RCE. We would now like to have a personal interview. Would sometime in the week of July 26, 2004 be acceptable? Please let us know as soon as possible what would be a good date and time. I prefer in the early afternoon during the middle of the week.

Randy
